Cooler Master is relaunching its most acclaimed air cooler with the new Hyper 212 Halo Black. Featuring the all new Halo² fan, the new 212 combines its renowned performance with overhauled aesthetics. The Hyper 212 Halo Black is releasing in an all black design with a matching aluminum top cover. The black coated heat pipes maintain unhindered heat conductivity with a stunning black finish. The all new Halo² fan delivers stunning lighting of the dual loop ARGB and improved performance from its predecessor. The cooler height is designed at 154mm, allowing for a wide range of compatibility in most chassis without compromising cooling capabilities. The installation brackets give you the versatility for the latest platforms on market. We have taken what's best and made it even better – the Hyper 212 Halo Black.
